DR. STRAUS,

WOULD inform the citizens of Louisville and its vicinity, that he has located himself here permanently, for the purpose of practicing his profession in all its various branches, after the latest and most approved style. Having practiced for the last twenty years in New Orleans, I feel confident of giving satisfaction to every one who may honor me with a call. I would call the particular attention of the public to my mode of filling teeth, which is done in such a manner as to get twice the amount of gold into a cavity, as done in the usual way. I can, therefore, "guarantee" every tooth plugged in such manner to be as good as if never decayed.

Artificial teeth inserted—from one to an entire set—not only for beauty, but also for use, with or without suction, such as the case may require. Teeth extracted with as little pain as possible, and all other operations pertaining to dentistry.

HAVING had the advantage of a thorough Dental education, offer their Professional services to the citizens of Louisyille and vicinity. Dr. Fitz's skill in Mechanical Dentistry can be seen at thair office, specimens of which took the first Premium and Diplomas at the United States Fair in 1857. Dr. Wilson has been treating aching teeth successfully for the last five years by destroying the nerse without pain, filling the fangs and crown with gold, restoring the tooth to its natural shape, and making it as useful as before decay. Do not have your teeth extracted until you are certain they cannot be saved. More than fifty per cent. of the teeth usually extracted can be made useful through life. We are daily treating and filling teeth of this class that comes in to be extracted. In no case do we disfigure a tooth by filing to fill it, using other and better means than the indiscriminate use of the file. Any tooth can be filled with gold that is worth filling at all. We use, when requested, a local anesthesia to prevent pain in extracting teeth.

All operations warranted as represented, and terms as liberal as any good Dentist can afford.

Риоходианту. - The professional phonographic ecturer, Mr. T. Slee, has returned from Carrollton to Louisville, and is now fully prepared to instruct pupils thoroughly in the processs of penning words as swift as they can be spoken. Parties desirous of learning the art, either to take lessons privately or in class, should apply at once, at the Garrard House, Market street, and thus secure an hour most suitable to themselves. The time and outlay required for attaining a knowledge of phonography is so trifling that any person, though in a crowded line of business, may, without interrupting his other pursuits, speedily become a proficient in it. Supposing, however, the trouble and application even more than it really is, no industrious person will regret the time spent in a study that must amply compensate for the trouble taken in acquiring it. To all who are intended for the three learned prefessions of law, physic, and divinity, the knowledge of phonography ought to be a peculiar object of attention. To gentlemen at the bar, it will afford a means of retaining the arguments of an adversary amply and correctly; and of such moment is the skill of this art to them especially when not endowed with an extraordinary memory, that the want of it may prove an insurmountable obstacle to eminence in their profession. To the student, it is of the utmost importance, in enabling him to take down pleadings, the opinions of the judges, etc., and to those who attend lectures on physic, surgery, divinity, etc., the advantages accraing from it are sufficiently obvious. To the clergy, also, it will prove highly useful, as by accustoming themselves to write their sermons in this hand, they will experience a great saving of time. In short, to people of almost every denomination, it will be highly advantageous, particularly to those who go abroad. as it will enable them to make useful remarks in a secret and expeditious manner. We should have sconded, yesterday, the proosition of Grand Mster Morris to celebrate the approaching centental anniversary of Robbie Burns' birth-day. It it is not too late now to vote aye, and we do t heartily and enthusiastically. Surely the mmory of deserves some recgnition from a people who have wept over hi plaintive melodies-whose hearts have been chstened by his pure thoughts -whose pulses have beat faster when his words of fire and flame were chanted-whose manhood has been elevaed by his noble assertion of true gentility, and whose cares and vexations have fled before his deliate humor and keen satire. Yes, it is most fitting that on the twentyfifth of January we shold unite with the whole world in commemorating the eventful day which gave birth to so great agenius as Burns. Scotsmen will do him honor hen; Masons will pledge the memory of one of the greatest of their brotherhood; but the songsof the great bard belong to no nation or fraternly. They are universal in their adaptation, as hisheart was boundless in its charities. The propoition for a banquet on the 25th meets with commendation from every one with whom we have onversed. It is only necessary to have some van of organization to perfect arrangements for a grand banquet worthy of Louisville and of the deathless song writer. We had, a few days since, the pleasure of in specting two beautiful Indscape paintings, fresh from the easel of an acomplished and talented young lady of Fourth street. They evince the possession of the highest order of genius on the part of the artist, and give promise of eminence in this most difficult of arts. The paintings are copies after Lessing and are of the Dusseldorf chool. One is a mountain scene, and the other quiet view of field and water, with grand old nills in the distance. If there be any defect in hese works, it is a ack of warmth in the colorng-a defect which may be easily remedied. It is gratifying in this day, when woman's whole ampition seems centred in playing the belle, and ecoming a parlo ornament, or a walking sign or dry good stores and millinery shops, to see a lady turn from such frivolous pursuits and devote er talents to something ennobling and elevating. a this connection it may be proper to mention hat our friend Go. F. Fuller has disposed of his ine painting-the race between the Baltic and Diana-in New York, for a large sum. It will be ithographed in colors, and, we predict, will have a fine sale, and stablish the reputation of the rifted artist. How An Irishman was Forced to Sign a Marriage Bond was told us yesterday by our friend Gheen, of the Chancery Court. On Monday evening a man and woman, both Miesians, (or Greeks, as Reverend Henry Giles would have it.) entered the office of he clerk of the County Court. The man was slow of movement, the woman quick; the man eluctant, the wonan eager; the man crest-fallen, he woman flush with certain victory. The wonan stated that she wished a license to marry the nan. The ever-assiduous Conn made out the necessary documents, but just at the critical uncture when the bond was to be signed, the man was observed sneaking out of the door .-'Come back, Mr. Murphy, come back, Mr. Murphy," cries the woman. But Murphy heeds not. 'Mister Clerk wants ye, Murphy," adds the determined female. "The divil take the clerk and ye too," responds the indignant Murphy. Thereipon the woman was after him, seizes his coat tail, and drags him up to the desk, where Murphy had to affix his name to the bond. The woman paid the license fee, and departed in triumph, leading the captive Murphy. They entered a hack in front of the Court House, and were driven allow the change to be made than to lose the bill to the "praist's," where the indefatigable female was made Mrs. Murphy. What more natural than that we should turn from this to Domestic Dissensions. olution of the marital relations. Antone Pracht orce him from Constantina Pracht, who has de serted a much injured and long suffering husband. Paulina Bryant affirms that Thos. Jefferson Bryant has fled from her, and taken up with some other woman. Geo. Drack accuses Bertha Drack of naving played false to him, and wants a divorce; while Theresa Ringsdorff swears that Edward Ringsdorff is a brute, and desires to have the privlege of marrying some one else. So the world goes. Some people are "married, but not mated, and it is best for humanity and decency that the Chancellor should whet his legal knife and sever all such bonds.

Spicy Correspondence - Senators Douglas and Jones. The following letters from a Galena (Illinois) paper, are tart and spicy. The response of Senator Jones to Mr. Douglas is a clincher. South of Mason and Dixon's line such language usually causes a fight. It is yet to be seen how the Illinois Senator will notice it. Here are the letters : WINCHESTER, Aug. 7, 1858. My Dear Sir: Your letter of the 28th of July, communicating to me the fact that there is a rumor in circulation in Galena, supposed to have come from Gen. Jones, of Iowa, that pending the Illinois Central Railroad grant in the Senate of The bill, as drawn and introduced into Congress by myself, provided for a railroad from the southern terminus of the Ohio river, with a branch to Chicago, and another to Galena, the northwestern terminus of the road. Gen. Jones, his colleague, and perhaps some others, objected to Galena as a hiatus would be created in the railroad between the east and west side of the river. I endeavored to dissuade them from their objections, and to induce them to allow the bill to pass in the standard of the summoning of Brigham Young to attend court to answer the charge of false imprisment of Galein and Michigan canal to the mouth of the Ohio river, with a branch to Chicago, and another to Galena, the northwestern Gate and returned, we learn that there was great the mountains. Out of ten mules while encamped at Levil's Gate, all were frozen to death but one. This was only saved by being completely covered to dissuade them from their objections, and to induce them to allow the bill to pass in the above the mountains. The summoning of Brigham Young to attend court to answer the charge of false imprisment of the betting. There are notable in stances on record of pride having caught falls and if the backers of the produce of other stal lions than Revenue show anything like game in the betting, "Old Virginupy" is quite likely to distribute some of her surplus cash among her more Southern sisters.

The bill, as drawn and introduced from the south. There are notable in stances on record of pride having caught falls and if the backers of the produce of other stal lions than Revenue show anything like game in the betting, "Old Virginupy" is quite likely to distribute some of her surplus cash among her more Southern sisters.

The bill, as drawn and introduced in the aring and the mountains with a supply train, and who met the mountains better was great the mountains. Out of ten mules while encamped at the mountains. Out of ten mules while encamped at the mountains. Out of ten mules while encamped at the betting, "Old Virginupy" is qui whole bill would be defeated unless we consented to the change, and we thought it was better to altogether, although we did not think that our large encampments of Sioux Indians were passed on the Platte river. The Sioux Indians are going ing to defeat a great measure for our State on a point of the kind. Under these circumstances I Pawnees. The Pawnees have recently been stealing horses from the Cheyennes, and the latter say ination of the united delegation of the State, to agree to the change by which the road should be extended to Dubuque, but carefully omitting to provide at what point the crossing should be, thether at Dubuque, at Tete de Moris, or at any intermediate point. I will only add that any intuition or intimation on the part of Gen. Jones, r any of his friends, that I had any collusion of Galena to those of Dubuque, or any other point, is basely and infamously false.

Very respectfully, your friend, H. G. CROUCH, Esq., Galena, III. GEN. JONES' LETTER IN REPLY TO THE FOREGOING

Dubuque, Iowa, Nov. 9, 1858. Hox. S. A. Douglas, Chicago, Ill.—Sir: Here-with is inclosed your letter dated August 7, 1858, to H. G. Crouch, editor of the Galena, (Ill.) Courier, cut from that paper of the 2d inst., with editorial accompanying the same, headed— Bass Catumny." I will not condescend to nomany wilful misrepresentations of your letter, preferring to deal with you, as more responsible than your instrument. I say "wilful misrepresentations," because you say you "have a distinct recollection of the facts in the case," and because the journals and debates of the Senate prove your statements to be wholly destitute of truth, so far as you refer to my colleague, (Gen. A. C. Dodge) myself and our friends as having ever expressed or entertained the idea, as you say, of "deeating the bill unless the road was extended to Dubuque," though we surely had as much right so to amend it as our Southern friends of Kentucky, Tennessee, and Alabama had to suggest and require, as I think they did, that you should make the road extend to Mobile, through those league, Gen. Shields, ever had such consultation, either between yourselves or your colleagues of the House, before 1 offered my amendment to make the road terminate at this place, instead of at Galena. You moreover knew equally well, that when I approached you towards the close of the debate in the Senate on the bill with my amendtions to my offering it, stating as I did that it was merely to extend your road to Dubuque, 12 or 15 miles further West, that you not only freely ascolleagues to the same effect. That I then offered it, and it was passed without a dissenting vote or objection from any quarter whatever, as the records show.

You must also recollect that within twenty-four hours after the passage of the bill through the Senate, I informed you that I had had a conversation with Col. Baker, the then Representative from Galena in Congress, and that he declared to me that he would not allow the bill to pass the House without having my amendment stricken from it, and that you then said you did not care what Baker wished: that it was right the road should terminate on the Mississippi, and so con-nect with our proposed railroad, and that you would so state to your colleagues, Col. Richard-son, Maj. Harris, and others of the House, who would take charge of the bill, and would prevent Baker from making any such amendment in that the person who procured the amendment, making Dubuque the terminus of the road; and although you knew that hundreds of your own constituents were then present, you did not intimate that the same had been done contrary to your wishes. You were then addressing an lowa audience whom you wished to propitiate.

The assertion on your part that I or my col-league or any one of our friends had determined to defeat your bill upon the ground stated by you, or for any other reason whatever, is false, and its publication being deferred until the day of the publication being deferred until the day of the late Illinois election, too late to be contradicted by myself or others, shows that you and he (your Galena organ) who acted for you, designed to mislead the Galena people, and thus accomplish your selfish purpose. The journals and the debates of the Senate show that Gen. Dodge and I heartily co-operated with you and your colleague in every effort and every vote which was given on that question. For many considerations we could not but be deeply interested in the passage of that bill.

Again sir, when you last visited Dubuque, (Angust 26, 1857.) you 'had an interview with J. B. Dorr, the editor of the Express and Herald, of this city, who had, ever since you introduced the Kansas and Nebraska bill in the Senate, been your bitter opponent, and the opponent of that measure. The next morning an editorial article appeared in that paper, of which the following is an extract:

"But Illinois is not the only State which has been benefitted by the policy and by the labors of Stephen A Douglas. All the Western States are indebted to him for the material prosperity which is observable within their borders. We believe, however, that our State (Iowa) stands next to Hlinois in her obligations to Mr. Douglas. To him more than to any living man is owing the magnificent railroad system planned out of her—the system which is destined to make her one of the wealthiest and most important States of the West. Even our own good city of Dubuque owes, in a great measure, her present importance to the labors of Mr. Douglas. She knows that the ex-

Two numbers of the paper containing the above extract were sent to you the next day, one to Galena and the other to Chicago, with the expectation that you would have the honesty to spurn the offer thus made you by your newly acquired advocate here, to the detriment of myself, for whom you then professed friendship. Instead of doing so, however, the same article was re-published in the Times, your organ at Chicago, and that, too, within a very few days after it came out here, and whilst you were still at Chicago, necessarily withwithin a very few days after it came out here, and whilst you were still at Chicago, necessarily within your knowledge, if not at your request. Thus, sir, at one time you extolled me in unmeasured terms for causing Dubuque to be made the terminus of the Illionis Central Railroad when addressing an lowa audience; at another you allowed Dorr, your ally and my unscrupulous opponent nere, to filch that which justly belongs to me and appropriate it to your temporary benefit. And now, when arraigned by your constituents for allowing me to make an amendment to your bill, to lowing me to make an amendment to your bill, to the advantage of Galena, (as the people believe,) you resort to the dishonest and unworthy pretaxt of saying you were compelled either to allow the of saying you were compelled either to allow the amendment to be made, or to lose the bill entirely, because, "they (myself and colleague) were immovable and insisted on defeating the bill," etc.—Neither Gen. Dodge, his father, nor myself, ever voted against you or Gen. Shields on any amendment or proposition offered to the bill, and it finally passed by yeas and nays 26 to 14; so we had not, as you allege, the power to defeat the bill, as still it would have passed.

My amendment was offered without consultation with any one, not excepting my own colleague, or any one of my own constituents. I am proud of having procured such a benefit for the

This, sir, is the third time that you have made "infamously false" accusations against me, and that I have been compelled to fasten the lie upon you. Though you may, at the sacrifice of Demooratic organization, have effected a triumph in your State, as you say, "over Executive and Congressional dictation," I can but look with contempt upon any fame or position you may have

at the South. Seward, Chase, Giddings, and other leaders of the Republican party have lately, in speeches and letters, discovered the manner in which slave ry is to be abolished at the South through the instrumentality of an organization in the North. A Democratic cotemporary, the Albany Argus and Atlas, thus condenses and explains it:

The meaning of this is, let the middle States The meaning of this is, let the middle States invite slaves to escape, and refuse to surrender them. Let the North take possession of both Houses of Congress, and of the Executive department. Reconstruct the Judiciary. Make slaveholding a disqualification for office, and Abolitionism the requisite for all positions. Fill the Southern postoffices with Abolitions. Fill the Southern pestoffices with Abolition agents, and make the mails the agency for the dissemination of insurrectionary publications. Use the money power and the public domain as bribes for emancipation; and tax the States that refuse to comply with the demands of Northern fanaticism. Recruit free black "citizens" into the army, and when Southern States appeal for the army, and when Southern States appeal for succor send them there. Intercept the slave emi-gration between States; and prostrate the barriers which the State constitutions interpose to the in-cursions of free negroes. And finally, so discriminate in treaties with foreign powers, in tarit's, &c., against the productions of the South, as to render slave labor worthless.

This is the plan of Seward, Giddings & Co.;

and the authors of it turn up the whites of their pious eyes and wonder at the excess of their own forbearance, and at their devotion to this "cursed

And such are the men Southerners are invited and urged to co-operate with under the name of the "Opposition." Whole platoons, companies, and regiments of Know Nothings, who are yet true to their own interests and their section, will refuse to thus follow Crittenden, Humphrey Marshall, Underwood, and the Louisville Journal, into the Black Republican ranks. Poor Forney !- The Washington correspondent of the Cincinnati Enquirer writes as follows: I see Col. Forney, of the Philadelphia Press, ecasionally on the avenue. His associations are pretty much with Republicans, and he receives scarcely a nod from Democrats. The bitterness of his personal assaults on the President, his pretended revelations of confidential conversations with the President, his assisting Republicans to defeat Democrats, have placed him altogether beyond the pale of the Democratic household, and made him seek the camp of the enemy as a place of rest. His letters abusing Senator Bigler, as having voted to oust Douglas, when he knew it was not so, have done him much injury with many who were inclined to be lenient in regard to his political position. He will hereafter be of Simon Cameron's politics—that which will pay best in offices and cash.

MONEY LOANED .- Ladies or gentlemen requiring loans of any amount on Diamonds, Plate, etc., can be accommodated by applying at the Exchange office, 53 Third street, next door to the Courier office. Tickets in the Shelby College and Havana-plan wention, and for other purposes, on motion, John C. Atchison was called to the chair, and John M. Johnson appointed secretary. The object of the meeting fiving been explained, on motion a committee was appointed to draft a set of resolutions, whereupon Major J. T. Carpenter, Dr. J. B. Henry, Alfred Simmons, R. F. Strange, and P. Meguiar, were appointed as said committee. The committee reported the following preamble and resolutions, which were unanimously adopted.

Whereas, At a meeting held on the 15th Nevember by the Democrate of this county, N. S. Strange being chairman, and C. B. Donaldson, secretary, a series of resolutions reported by John Burnam, Maq., Chairman of Committee on Resolutions, were unanimously adopted; and, whereas, C. B. Donaldson, was so far forgetful of the duties willingly assumed by him, (and the high and honorable obligations due from him to the meeting) as to place the resolutions as passed in the hands of his friend, who suppresses a portion of the resolutions, and forwarded to the Louisville Democrat and Courier a copy of the proceedings. Therefore, be it resolved—

1. That we regard such suppressions as an indignity and insult offered to the Democracy of this county, and we declare that the proceedings as publised in those papers are not authenticated, and that we ought not to be and are net bound by them.

2. That if we permit any member of our party, however elevated or degraded, however honorable or dishonorable, he may be, te suppress, or mutilate, or in any other mode, destroy the integrity of the record of our proceedings, when, in primary convention assembled, all such meetings are ridiculous and mischievous, and ought to be held in unutterable contempt, as such practices only defeat the while of the cunning, the unscrupulous, and corrupt.

8. That in times past, se now, we, the Democracy of Warren county, would re-affirm our unwavering confidence in, and firm adherence to, those great principles (embodied in the Cinivaxii and the second of the cunning, the unscrupulous, and Lotteries for sale, or forwarded to any address .-Prizes cashed. THE annual meeting of the Stockholders of this Association will take place at the Merchants' Exchange, southwest corner of Second and Main streets, on SAT-URDAY, the 5th inst., to elect a Prosident and Board of Directors for the year 1859.

At this meeting a full financial exhibit will be made, a statement be read with reference to the amendment made to the charter by the last Legislature, and the subject of holding the next Annual Fair with PRES or with UMARGED admissions be discussed and determined. As proxies cannot be voted upon all the questions that will probably come up for decision, it will be advisable for all Stockholders to be present and act in person, whether they have given proxies to be used in the election of the new Board of Directors or not.

XXXVth CONGRESS-SECOND SESSION. Tuesday's Proceedings. WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—SENATE.—The Senate met at noon in the old hall, from which the desks had been removed and a supply of cane-seated chairs provided for temporary accommodation of mem-bers. The galleries and floor were crowded by a bers. The galleries and floor were crowded by a dense throng, notwithstanding the snow storm, it having been understood that Vice President Breckinridge and others would speak. The proceedings, as usual, were opened with prayer, and the reading of the journal.

Mr. Stuart, of Michigan, moved that as many ladies are unprovided with seats in the galleries they be admitted to the floor.

Mr. Hamlin, of Me., objected, on the ground that the admission of ladies would embarrass the legitimate business, consequently the ladies were gitimate business, consequently the ladies were not admitted.

Mr. Davis, of Miss., submitted the report of the committee, stating that the new chamber was ready for the Senate.

Mr. Crittenden, of Ky.. moved the adoption of the report.

The Vice-President then said: The parting from this chamber he thought was an act of much solemnity. Many associations, and many of them proud and pleasant, bind us to this chamber, which has been the scene of great events. Questions of the American Constitution, questions of great national import, questions of peace and war, have been debated in this chamber; great men have been the actors within these walls. He had seen men whose names and fame have not been surpassed in the annals of Greek or Roman history. Here he had seen Clay, Webster, Calhoun, Lee, Wright and others; they seem to have left on these very walls the impress of their fame.—This majestic dome yet seems to echo to their voices.

There are others too, whom he would not desig nate, for they had not yet fulfilled their politica ervices, but whose names are in no danger of being forgotten. When Senators remove to the ing forgotten. When Senators remove to the new chamber they will carry with them the in spiration of their illustrious predecessors. They will leave behind them no iota of patriotism or attachment to the Constitution. These are our household gods. They are carried with us to the new hall, and will be the scene of the past. There they will ever remain, the Senate of the United States the great preservative body of this great

The Vice President continued at length, addres-The vice President continued at length, addressing the Senate, giving a historical sketch of the Congress at the various seats of government, until its location at Washington. He then narrated the burning of the Capital by the British army, the assembling thereafter of Congress in Bodgett's Hotel, on the site occupied by the General Postoffice, and finally the assembling in 1819 in remedy for Consumption, Schofula, etc., and is recom-Postoffice, and finally the assembling in 1819, in the present building. Then he went into an interesting comparison of the obsracter of the Senate in the early days of the Government, and how then it was almost wholly an executive body. Much of its business was transacted with closed doors. The President often took part in the dedoors. The President often took part in the de bates, and it was not for many years that the gal-leries were provided for spectators. After further remarks, which were listened to with wrapt attention, the Senate proceeded in procession to the new hall.

Twelve Million Dollars per Annum for Beef-Statistics of the New York Cattle Market-The Slaughter for the year 1858. Our annual tables of the past year show a remarkable increase in the consumption of animals slaughtered for food in the city of New York for Notwithstending the generally received opinion that there would be a diminished demand in consequence of the large number of persons thrown out of employment during the last three months of 1857, yet it appears that whether the people of the city work or not, they must eat—in fact, it must be allowed that we do eat.

It will be found an interesting study to many persons, both producers and consumers, to examine the table of weekly receipts of animals used for food—as to their numbers, prices, and where they come from. Look at the enormous number of two hundred thousand beeves received and slavichters. hundred thousand beeves received and slaughtere for the consumption of this city and neighboring places, within the past year. It may be said that all received have not been slaughtered, that a good many have been taken to the country to feed, and of these many have been returned, and have been

To this we reply, that the number thus dupli-cated, added to the number bought for slaughter in town, more than ten miles from New York, is very far less than the number that have come di-rect to butchers' hands either on foot or by conveywe will, therefore, assume in round numbers 200,-000 bullocks as the number sent to the shambles of the city and suburbs in the year 1858. The average value of all these bullocks is not less than sixty dollars a head, as sold on foot in the market. This makes the little trifle of twelve millions of dollars paid the country by this city, for beef cattle, in one year. Of those sold at the cattle market in Forty-fourth street, the great Bull's Head of America, we have over a thousand a week from Illinois, which is the greatest beef producing State in the Union.

It has furnished apparently almost twice es producing State in the Union.

It has furnished, apparently, almost twice as much as the State of New York, and in reality more than double, because many reported from this State actually came from the West, stopping only long enough to gain resi ience. Some of the States nearest to the city have furnished only a very small portion of the whole number. Neither Connecticut nor New Jersey furnish us as many beeves as Texas. In point of quality, however, the latter is far behind the others.

As the Agent of the above Insurance Company, I solicit those wanting Fire or Marine Insurance to examine their report, which must convince every one that it has a solid foundation for the payment of all losses, and the public may rest assured that I would not have taken the agency had not I felt well satisfied of its ability to pay every loss it may sustain. This Company has been in existence and doing a profitable business for the past seventsen years, and its credit is established beyond all doubt. I refer below to the note of its late worthy Agent, Mr. Vernon.

I desire to call the attention of farmers who have

Dwelling Houses and Barns to insure, as this kind of Insurance is particularly desired, at very low rates.

JOHN B. McILVAIN, Agent of the 'Peoria Insurance Company." Having resigned the agency of the "Peoria Marine and Fire Insurance Company," for which I have acted as agent in this city for the past year, I would cordially recommend it to the public at large as a safe and reliable Company, worthy of their patronage and support.

EDWARD H. VERNON.

RICHARDSON'S IRISH LINENS DAMASKS, DIAPERS, &C. CONSUMERS of RICHARDSON'S LINENS, and those desirous of obtaining the GENUINE GOODS, should ee that the articles they purchase are sealed with the full name of the firm.

RICHARDSON, SONS & OWDEN, as a guarantee of the soundness and durability of the Goods.
This caution is rendered essentially necessary, as large quantities of inferior and defective Linens are prepared, season after season, and sealed with the name of RICH-ARDSON, by Irish Houses, who, regardless of the injury thus inflicted alike on the American consumer and the manufacturers of the genuine Goods, will not readily abandon a business so profitable, while purchasers can be imposed on with Goods of a worthless character.

It is no new and untried article, but one that has stood the test of a ten years' trial before the American people, and its reputation and sale is unrivaled by any similar preparation extant. The testimony in its favor given by the most prominent and well-known Physicians and individuals in all parts of the country is immense, and a careful perusal of the Almanac, published annually by the proprietor, and to be had gratis of any of his Agents, cannot but satisfy the most skeptical that this remedy is really deserving the great celebrity it has obtained.

This is a purely vegetable compound, prepared on scrictly scientific principles after the manner of the celebrated Holland Professor, Borhave. Because of its great success in most of the European States, its introduction into the United States was intended more especially for those of our fatherland scattered here and there over the face of this mighty country. Meeting with great success among them, I now offer it to the American public, knowing that its truly wonderful medicinal virtues must be acknowledged.

It is particularly recommended to those persons whose constitutions may have been impaired by the continuous use of ardent spirits, or other forms of dissipation. Generally instantaneous in effect, it finds its way directly to the seat of life, thrilling and quickening every nerve, raising up the drooping spirit, and, in fact, infusing new health and vigor in the system.

NOTICE—Whoever expects to find this a beverage will be disappointed; but to the sick, weak and low spirited, it will prove a greatful aromatic cordial, possessed of singular remedial properties.

THE RIVER was rising slowly last evening, with THE RIVER was rising slowly last evening, with fully six feet six inches water on the falls for steamboats, or "over the rocks," and nine and a half feet in the caual by the mark. This is a rise of four inches during the previous 24 hours, and a good stage of water for navigation. The weather suddenly turned cold Monday night, and ice was freely made, but yesterday it was bright, "I door and pleasant." and clear, and pleasant and clear, and pleasant.

The falls are navigable for up stream boats; to take the middle chute, if not drawing over five feet water. Several heavy lines had to come up through the canal, and the Monarch, for New Orleans, also went through the canal.

The officers of the Emma Dean, from Carrollton, yesterday, report the Kentucky river swelling a little, and encountered all sorts of bad weather—snow, rain, sleet, ice, and cold as Greenand for awhile, though clear and pleasant after reaching port.

ANOTHER STEAMBOAT COLLISION—THE MADISON SUKE—BOAT AND CARGO TOTAL LOSS—THREE LIVES REPORTED LOST—LOSS $75,000.—We have to announce the total loss of the Madison, with a cargo of 500 tons of groceries, by collision on the Ohio river Monday evening, at 8 o'clock, with the Iowa. The Madison, of the Cincinnati Express Line, in charge of Capt. Geo. Hoople, was going up the Kentucky shore, just in the bend opposite the town of Aurora, Ind., when she was met by the Iowa, Capt. Wm. Moore, descending. The latter was bound for St. Louis, a stern wheeler, and had over 500 tons of freight on board. Both boats signalled each other about the same time, each giving one blast of the whistle. The signals, evidently misunderstood, were repeated, each boat giving two blasts from their steam whistles, and of course the direction of both was of 500 tons of groceries, by collision on the Oi whistles, and of course the direction of both was changed from the left to the right, and they came together in mid-river with fearful force. The bow, or nose, of the Iowa struck the side and guard of the Madison about midships, on the starboard side, cutting clear through the guard and hull to the center, or within a foot of the doctor engine. The pilot at the wheel of the Madison was Isaac Goff, and it is claimed by the officers that the boat was in the right place. The pilot at the wheel of the Iowa was Joseph McCammut, and the officers of that boat contend that they were in the right place, and did all in their power to prevent the collision. The boat had been stopped, and was "backing" at the time of The Iowa arrived here yesterday entirely unin jured, save the breaking of her gallows frame and jackstaff. The Madison was run over to the Aurora wharfboat, where she sunk in about five Aurora wharfboat, where she sunk in about five minutes in twenty feet water, and now lics careened to starboard, the water on the cabin floor. The Madison is in her fifth year, and was valued at $12,000, and insured in the following offices in Cincinnati: Commercial $2,500; Firemens' $2,500, and Cincinnati $2,000; total $8,000 - her two-thirds value. She was owned by Capt. Geo. D. Hoople, Capt. Henry A. Jones, and Mr. Thomas Shenlock. The Madison had 16 cabin and 23 deck bassengers. Three of her deck passengers were passengers. Three of her deck passengers were missing, and are supposed to have been drowned, though the officers of the Iowa think all were saved. Her cargo is valued at $65,000, and was insured. She had on board, for Cincin

From Albany, N. Y.

ALBANY, Jau. 4.—Governor Morgan's first message was transmitted to both houses to-day. The following is an abstract of the principal features: The funded debt of the State is $30,913,258 77, of which $2,430,770 44 is the caual debt. The entire which $2,430,770 44 is the canal debt. The entire receipts from canals for the year, is $2,072,204 88, from which, after deducting payment for superintendence and other charges, there is an abundance of surplus revenue, amounting to $993,425 97.—As, however, the interest and constitutional requirements of the sinking fund far exceeds this amount of surplus, there is an actual deficiency of $705,574 08, if the interest upon the general canal fund is added to that accrueing the canal fund. Drafts have also been issued by the Canal Commissioners, amounting, on the 30th of $80th. Commissioners, amounting, on the 30th of Sept., 1858, to $1,830,033 30, beyond the ability of the State Treasury, and by this time, these drafts have probably augmented to $1,700,000, or $2 000,000.

To meet the claims upon the Treasury, actual and estimated, which relates to the canals alone, $2,655,000 will be required, equivalent to a State tax of nearly two mills on the dollar, of the valuaions of 1857. The above sum does not include lamages for elargement, for which $1,000,000 additional will be required, besides $500,000 to pay the 15 per cent. reserved out of the estimates for work done under contract. These figures are correct. Obligations, amounting to over $4,000,000, have incurred, without including the necessary outlay for completing what has been commenced, regardless of the constitutional provision specifying that no debt shall be contracted, unless authorized by law, which shall impose an annual tax to pay the interest on such debt, and providing for the payment of the principal within 18 he 15 per cent. reserved out of the estimates for ng for the payment of the principal, within 1s ears from the date of its being contracted.

He regrets the necessity of this exhibition of inances, requiring an early and deliberate action by the Legislature to provide for its extinguish-nent. The importance of the early completion of canal enlargement is urged, which can be finished by the spring of 1860, if the small amount required, when compared with that already exnded, is provided for.

Gov. Morgan expresses the opinion that until the canals are completed and the present floating debt is paid, appropriations should be confined to the most economical necessities of the Govern-ment. He also says that a resort to district taxa-to maintain the superiority of liberty over slaver and views as a wrong, the attempt to infli-slavery upon Territories hitherto free, and or no slavery in the Territories, to the unchecked volition of the first hundred or thousand persons who might fall upon their soil, is to concede the assumption that no natural, no moral considerations are involved in the issue of free or slave labor. This is not genuine popular sovereignty, but sovereignty of chance, of accident, of fleetness in reaching, and dexterity in appropriating the Territory in question. It is the sovereignty of the few over the destiny of millions. New York of the few over the destiny of millions. New York has not assented and never can assent to a theory which divests her of all control over the common eritage of her sons with those of her sister live where manual labor is respectable, or where it is regarded as fit employment only of the en-slaved and degraded. Every American must, in his heart, desire either that slavery should or should not be extended into the federal territories and each has a right to proclaim and act upon his choice. If the deliberate sentiment of the his choice. If the deliberate sentiment of the people, constitutionally expressed, shall favor slavery extension, New York will submit, as she always has, to decisions fairly made, which contravene her convictions or her interests. However disappointed by any lawful action of the authorities of the United States, she never has faltered nor sought redress in acts of nullification, and she wages no war upon the institutions or interests of her sister States.
